

June Sale of Muslin Underwear and Shirt Waists STARTS TO-DAY Third Floor Kaufmann & Co.

Social and Personal

Last week a large part of the younger society set here went to the various schools and colleges in the State to attend finals. Washington and Lee University and the University of Virginia both closed with a series of brilliant balls, and a large number of pretty girls in attendance. Miss Alston Drake, Miss Mildred Lee, Miss Sarah O'Connell, and Miss Martha Valentine left town on Saturday for Alexandria, where they have gone to attend the finals at the Episcopal High School near that place. They will return to Richmond the latter part of the week. Several Richmond girls are also at Woodberry Forest School, near Orange, for the closing exercises of the session.

William Jackson and a party of friends left last week in an automobile for Lexington, where they will attend the balls given at finals at the Virginia Military Institute. Miss Fanny Scott and Miss Emma Conquest are also at V. M. I.

Returned from North Carolina. Mrs. Herbert W. Jackson, of 509 West Franklin Street, has returned from a month's visit to Edenton and Raleigh, N. C. At Edenton, Mrs. Jackson attended the Council of the Eastern Diocese of North Carolina, and at Raleigh she attended the commencement exercises at St. Mary's School. Mrs. Jackson is an alumna of St. Mary's, one of the oldest institutions in the South, and is vice-president of the Alumnae Association.

Entertained in Ashland. Miss Nancy Snyder entertained at bridge-while in honor of her guests, Miss Elise Lloyd, of North Carolina; Miss Dorothy Wallace, of Charleston, S. C.; Miss Charlotte Miller, of Huntington, W. Va., and Miss Eleanor Wingfield, of Richmond. Miss Snyder was assisted by Miss Elise Lloyd.

Chocolate Sets at $1.25 to $9.00 per set.

The E. B. Taylor Co.
23 W. Broad Street and 1011 East Main Street.

For Oil Cooking and Heating Stoves

See
N. KLEIN SON, INC.
620 East Broad

REFRIGERATORS
$8.00 to $37.00
ROTHERT & CO.
319-321 E. Broad St.

Children's White Canvas Button Shoes, $1.00
ALBERT STEIN
KING OF SHOES,
5th and Broad

Best Quality
Womens and Misses Outer Garments
Blen and Harding Inc.

Hopkins Furniture Co.,
7 West Broad St.
Cash or Credit.

Tragle's Vacation Sale
Continued This Week
Dreyfus & Co.
201 E. Broad

WE MAKE A SPECIALTY of packing household goods and china for shipment.
Rountree-Sutherland-
Cherry Corporation
111-113-115 West Broad Street.

A Famous New York Chef Says:
"I could as easily do without flour,
in baking, as without Sauer's Extracts."
Unequaled for cakes, loaves, custards, puddings, sauces, etc.
SAUER'S VANILLA.

nor's other guests included Miss Elise Cardwell, Ruth Blakey, Blanche Cheney, Katherine Marsh, Sarah Cardwell and Margie Riker.

The card party was given last week at Miss Snyder's home, in Ashland. Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Lucy Jane Stoneham and James Augustus Loving, of this city. The wedding, which will be a very pretty function, will take place on Wednesday morning, June 26, at 11 o'clock at 2211 Chaffin Street.

Arrived From Washington. Miss Natalie Gray Clunckett arrived in Richmond Friday from Washington, and is a guest of Mrs. Mabel Hough for several days. Miss Clunckett is expected to act as bridesmaid at the wedding of Miss Hough and Meade Carrington Loving, which will be celebrated very quietly at the Church of the Covenant tomorrow, with Dr. Calvin Stewart officiating. Miss Hough is a daughter of Charles Moore, formerly of Albemarle county, but lately of Portsmouth, England, and is herself a native of that county.

Pretty Wedding. John's Episcopal Church, City Point, was the scene of a beautiful wedding Wednesday, when Miss Sadie Bramble Cook, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nelson Cook, became the bride of Sidney Sutherland, South Boston, Va. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. G. Hibble. The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and daisies. Mrs. Robert Adams, of Richmond, presided at the organ.

R. L. Harrison, of Petersburg, and J. K. Cook, of Newport News, were the ushers. John Sutherland, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. Mrs. Macon R. Batts, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and wore a lingerie gown of embroidered lace over pink and carried pink Killarney roses.

The bride was attired in a white satin gown with a handsome overdress of embroidered net and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Her veil was caught with a pearl flower and lilies of the valley. The groom wore a white tuxedo, and carried a bouquet of sweethearts.

After the ceremony, a reception was given the friends and out-of-town guests at the home of the bride, after which the bride and bridegroom left on an extended Northern tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland will make their home in South Boston. Among the out-of-town guests were Miss J. L. Sutter, Emporia; Mrs. M. D. Marks, Mrs. F. G. Hibble, the Misses Hibble, Miss Florence Sutherland, Petersburg; Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Cook, New York; Mrs. Eugene Cherry, Mrs. J. T. Vaughan, J. T. Carneal, Mrs. C. F. Hill, Mrs. R. L. Adams, Mrs. S. N. Cook, Mrs. C. M. Motley, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. C. Smith, Mrs. J. L. Street, Mrs. Francis Street, Newport News; Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Clarke, Master Vada Clarke, Spring Hope, N. C.; Mrs. Z. W. Eley, Claude Eley, Suffolk.

Wedding of Interest. Society in Richmond and throughout the State is interested in the wedding of Mrs. Violet Duesberry Bidgood and Warren Wellford, of Roanoke, which took place on Saturday in St. Louis. The bride, who is the oldest daughter of Mrs. R. H. Duesberry, formerly of Mobile, Ala., wore a smart going-away gown of violet cloth with a hat to match, and carried a big bouquet of purple orchids. Mr. Wellford is a son of the late W. N. and Mrs. Anne Langhorne Wellford, and belongs to one of the best known families in the State. He has made his home in Roanoke for several years. After an extended wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Wellford will reside in St. Louis, where the former is engaged in the lumber business.

Lynchburg Wedding. Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ballou, Jr., for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Rosa Ballou, of Lynchburg, to Judge Eugene Ould, of Evinston. The ceremony will take place at the Court Street Methodist Church, Lynchburg, on Wednesday, June 19, at high noon.

Music lovers in Richmond are looking forward with much interest to the organ recital to be given at Park Place Methodist Church on Friday evening, June 21, at 8:15 o'clock. A very handsome new organ has recently been installed at Park Place Church. The recital will be given by Professor Ben J. Potter, associate of the College of Royal Organists, London, assisted by a number of other well known musicians. An interesting program has been arranged, and all friends of the church are cordially invited to be present.

Saul-Dodamead. Miss Olive Brokenbrough Dodamead, of Beale Avenue, Norfolk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Dodamead, left last week for Chicago, where she was married on Tuesday, June 4, to John Harold Saul, of Denver, Col. Mrs. A. H. Campbell accompanied her sister to Chicago, where the ceremony took place. Mr. and Mrs. Saul will make their home in Denver on their return from a wedding trip.

Miss Elizabeth Gimble Milhiser and Messrs. Roger and Gustav Milhiser, of this city, were among the passengers sailing Saturday from New York on board the steamship George Washington, of the North German Lloyd Line. They will spend some time in England and France, landing at Cherbourg.

Visiting Here. Dr. C. W. Astrop, of Surry county, was in Richmond Friday, returning from Ashland, where he attended the graduation of his son from Randolph-Macon College. Dr. Astrop and her son will spend several days in Richmond before returning to their home in Surry.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. O'Keefe, of 3033 Monument Avenue, have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. James Garwood O'Keefe and their little son, of Newark, N. J. Later Mrs. O'Keefe and her children will spend some time with the former's mother, Mrs. Andrew H. Tyree, of 717 West Main Street.

Is and Out of Town. Dr. Hugh Hagen, who has been visiting relatives here for several days, has returned to his home in Roanoke. Mrs. Thomas Burton Sneed left Saturday for a two weeks' stay in New York and Atlantic City.

Miss Ethel Boudar, of this city, is the guest of Mrs. Page Nixon at her home in Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Redd, of Richmond, are guests of their cousin, Mrs. Roger Adams, in Alexandria.

Just returning from a visit to J. T. Hansell, of Smithfield.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Lassiter are registered at the Dennis Hotel in Atlantic City this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Penn Crockett, of Nashville, Tenn., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Scherer on Grove Avenue.

PRIZES ARE AWARDED AT JEFFERSON SCHOOL

Charlottesville, Va., June 16.—At the annual meeting of the General Alumni Association of the University of Virginia, Rosewell Page, of Richmond, who is treasurer of the alumni fund, reported something over $5,000 on hand for the proposed alumni building, to be erected near the site of the Colonnade Club, on West Lawn, and that this amount, together with a contribution of about $5,000 from the Colonnade Club, would enable the school to be in charge to go forward with the erection of the building at once.

The building committee consists of the president of the university, the president of the Colonnade Club, together with Clayton Blackford, of Lynchburg; Thomas E. Bryan, of Richmond, and Dr. William A. Lambeth, of the university.

The architect's plans for the alumni hall were exhibited at the general alumni meeting, and were much admired. The structure will be a commodious building, with the Colonnade Club. The total cost of the building will be about $15,000.

The Hampden-Sidney scholarship—winner, Frank A. Massie, of Charlottesville. The University of Virginia scholarship—winner, William Wirt Waddell, of Charlottesville; alternate, Earl D. Via, of Charlottesville.

The McCabe prize—winner, Thomas Fitz-Hugh, of the University of Virginia; proximo, Thomas A. Thompson, of the University of Virginia; William Wirt Waddell, of Charlottesville.

Upper school honors—The mallet prize: Winner, Thomas Johnson Michie, Jr., of Charlottesville; proximo, Robert Eoff Wood, of Charlottesville. Honorable mention: Nathan Cockrell, of Jacksonville, Fla., and Cephas Edward Sinclair, of Charlottesville.

EAT HEARTILY
Eat what you like—no ill effects if you take
Coleman's
Guarantee
For indigestion, dyspepsia, etc. 50c for a large bottle. Ask your druggist.

MAHIMERS
BROAD AND FIFTH STS.

Children's and
Infants' Hats
300 on sale to-day at one-fourth to one-third less than regular prices.
$2.00 to $4.00 ones, 98c.
$1.00 and $1.50 ones, 39c and 49c.

Commencement
Flowers
Dainty baskets of cut flowers,
fragrant and beautiful—here from $2.50 up.

HAMMOND
FLORIST

BUY
LEATHER GOODS
AT ROUNTREE'S
703
E. BROAD ST.

Special Offerings
Today
Furnish
Your Home At
RYAN SMITHS
BIG STORE

See Our Windows
THE GLOBE

Graduation Footwear for Boys and Girls. Everything that is new.

Have You Seen
THE
New Method Gas Ranges
AT
Pettit & Co.'s?

Broad Rock
The Official Water of the American Druggists' Syndicate. Adopted as such because
IT IS THE PUREST.

DETROIT GAS RANGES,
ALASKA REFRIGERATORS,
OLD HICKORY FURNITURE,
SOLD ONLY BY
JURGENS

FUNDS ON HAND FOR ALUMNI HALL

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Charlottesville, Va., June 16.—At the recent annual meeting of the General Alumni Association of the University of Virginia, Rosewell Page, of Richmond, who is treasurer of the alumni fund, reported something over $5,000 on hand for the proposed alumni building, to be erected near the site of the Colonnade Club, on West Lawn, and that this amount, together with a contribution of about $5,000 from the Colonnade Club, would enable the school to be in charge to go forward with the erection of the building at once.

The building committee consists of the president of the university, the president of the Colonnade Club, together with Clayton Blackford, of Lynchburg; Thomas E. Bryan, of Richmond, and Dr. William A. Lambeth, of the university.

The architect's plans for the alumni hall were exhibited at the general alumni meeting, and were much admired. The structure will be a commodious building, with the Colonnade Club. The total cost of the building will be about $15,000.

The Hampden-Sidney scholarship—winner, Frank A. Massie, of Charlottesville. The University of Virginia scholarship—winner, William Wirt Waddell, of Charlottesville; alternate, Earl D. Via, of Charlottesville.

The McCabe prize—winner, Thomas Fitz-Hugh, of the University of Virginia; proximo, Thomas A. Thompson, of the University of Virginia; William Wirt Waddell, of Charlottesville.

Upper school honors—The mallet prize: Winner, Thomas Johnson Michie, Jr., of Charlottesville; proximo, Robert Eoff Wood, of Charlottesville. Honorable mention: Nathan Cockrell, of Jacksonville, Fla., and Cephas Edward Sinclair, of Charlottesville.

EAT HEARTILY
Eat what you like—no ill effects if you take
Coleman's
Guarantee
For indigestion, dyspepsia, etc. 50c for a large bottle. Ask your druggist.

MAHIMERS
BROAD AND FIFTH STS.

Children's and
Infants' Hats
300 on sale to-day at one-fourth to one-third less than regular prices.
$2.00 to $4.00 ones, 98c.
$1.00 and $1.50 ones, 39c and 49c.

Commencement
Flowers
Dainty baskets of
cut flowers,
fragrant and beautiful—here from $2.50 up.

HAMMOND
FLORIST

BUY
LEATHER GOODS
AT ROUNTREE'S
703
E. BROAD ST.

Special Offerings
Today
Furnish
Your Home At
RYAN SMITHS
BIG STORE

See Our Windows
THE GLOBE

Graduation Footwear for Boys and Girls. Everything that is new.

Have You Seen
THE
New Method Gas Ranges
AT
Pettit & Co.'s?

Broad Rock
The Official Water of the American Druggists' Syndicate. Adopted as such because
IT IS THE PUREST.

DETROIT GAS RANGES,
ALASKA REFRIGERATORS,
OLD HICKORY FURNITURE,
SOLD ONLY BY
JURGENS

LORD HALDANE GETS DESERVED PROMOTION

Becomes Lord High Chancellor in the British Cabinet.

BY LA MARQUE DE FONTENAY.
EVERYBODY interested in the well-being of the British army, or rather what remains of it, will breathe a sigh of relief to learn that Lord Haldane, who as Secretary of War picked it to pieces, but failed to put it together again, has been promoted to the lord high chancellorship.

This is an office in the Cabinet for which, as the cleverest members of the English bar, he is admirably fitted, while he was (practically) out of place at the War Department. Haldane has been a military man, but he has been a military man in a gang long established there, and his principal distinction was an inveterate enmity against Lord Kitchener.

Indeed, Kitchener on returning to England from India was given so thoroughly to understand that he could expect no military employment, that he remained at the head of the War Office, which he accepted the post of British resident in Egypt, in 1907. It was in this position that he conferred an importance not only diplomatic, but military and naval, which enables him to be a member of the recent cabinet.

The lord high chancellorship is the highest administrative and judicial office in the empire, for although the lord high steward ranks as the first great officer of the crown, yet his appointment is only made by the Privy Council, and he is a member of the House of Lords, and is a member of the House of Commons.

The lord high chancellorship is not only the most illustrious, but the most ancient office of the British Empire, the unbroken history of the office dating back to 1066, that is to say, two years after the Norman Conquest. It carries with it a seat in the Cabinet, a salary of $50,000 a year, a hereditary peerage, and a retiring pension of $20,000 a year—even if the holder is only a member of the House of Commons.

The lord high chancellorship is not only the most illustrious, but the most ancient office of the British Empire, the unbroken history of the office dating back to 1066, that is to say, two years after the Norman Conquest. It carries with it a seat in the Cabinet, a salary of $50,000 a year, a hereditary peerage, and a retiring pension of $20,000 a year—even if the holder is only a member of the House of Commons.

The lord high chancellorship is not only the most illustrious, but the most ancient office of the British Empire, the unbroken history of the office dating back to 1066, that is to say, two years after the Norman Conquest. It carries with it a seat in the Cabinet, a salary of $50,000 a year, a hereditary peerage, and a retiring pension of $20,000 a year—even if the holder is only a member of the House of Commons.

The lord high chancellorship is not only the most illustrious, but the most ancient office of the British Empire, the unbroken history of the office dating back to 1066, that is to say, two years after the Norman Conquest. It carries with it a seat in the Cabinet, a salary of $50,000 a year, a hereditary peerage, and a retiring pension of $20,000 a year—even if the holder is only a member of the House of Commons.

The lord high chancellorship is not only the most illustrious, but the most ancient office of the British Empire, the unbroken history of the office dating back to 1066, that is to say, two years after the Norman Conquest. It carries with it a seat in the Cabinet, a salary of $50,000 a year, a hereditary peerage, and a retiring pension of $20,000 a year—even if the holder is only a member of the House of Commons.

The lord high chancellorship is not only the most illustrious, but the most ancient office of the British Empire, the unbroken history of the office dating back to 1066, that is to say, two years after the Norman Conquest. It carries with it a seat in the Cabinet, a salary of $50,000 a year, a hereditary peerage, and a retiring pension of $20,000 a year—even if the holder is only a member of the House of Commons.

The lord high chancellorship is not only the most illustrious, but the most ancient office of the British Empire, the unbroken history of the office dating back to 1066, that is to say, two years after the Norman Conquest. It carries with it a seat in the Cabinet, a salary of $50,000 a year, a hereditary peerage, and a retiring pension of $20,000 a year—even if the holder is only a member of the House of Commons.

The lord high chancellorship is not only the most illustrious, but the most ancient office of the British Empire, the unbroken history of the office dating back to 1066, that is to say, two years after the Norman Conquest. It carries with it a seat in the Cabinet, a salary of $50,000 a year, a hereditary peerage, and a retiring pension of $20,000 a year—even if the holder is only a member of the House of Commons.

The lord high chancellorship is not only the most illustrious, but the most ancient office of the British Empire, the unbroken history of the office dating back to 1066, that is to say, two years after the Norman Conquest. It carries with it a seat in the Cabinet, a salary of $50,000 a year, a hereditary peerage, and a retiring pension of $20,000 a year—even if the holder is only a member of the House of Commons.

The lord high chancellorship is not only the most illustrious, but the most ancient office of the British Empire, the unbroken history of the office dating back to 1066, that is to say, two years after the Norman Conquest. It carries with it a seat in the Cabinet, a salary of $50,000 a year, a hereditary peerage, and a retiring pension of $20,000 a year—even if the holder is only a member of the House of Commons.

The lord high chancellorship is not only the most illustrious, but the most ancient office of the British Empire, the unbroken history of the office dating back to 1066, that is to say, two years after the Norman Conquest. It carries with it a seat in the Cabinet, a salary of $50,000 a year, a hereditary peerage, and a retiring pension of $20,000 a year—even if the holder is only a member of the House of Commons.

The lord high chancellorship is not only the most illustrious, but the most ancient office of the British Empire, the unbroken history of the office dating back to 1066, that is to say, two years after the Norman Conquest. It carries with it a seat in the Cabinet, a salary of $50,000 a year, a hereditary peerage, and a retiring pension of $20,000 a year—even if the holder is only a member of the House of Commons.

The lord high chancellorship is not only the most illustrious, but the most ancient office of the British Empire, the unbroken history of the office dating back to 1066, that is to say, two years after the Norman Conquest. It carries with it a seat in the Cabinet, a salary of $50,000 a year, a hereditary peerage, and a retiring pension of $20,000 a year—even if the holder is only a member of the House of Commons.

Engagement Rings

The prospective groom will find it to his advantage to acquaint himself with the most appropriate gift by visiting here. We are always pleased to show our goods.

Schwarzschild Bros.
Richmond's Leading Jewelers,
Second and Broad Sts.

RAIN BENEFITS FARMERS.

Ideal Season for Planting Tobacco, Crops in Good Condition.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Chatham, Va., June 16.—The dry spell, which has been for the past few weeks delaying the planting of tobacco, on Friday was broken with a delightful rain, resulting in an ideal season for planting tobacco, during which the remainder of the crop will be put in the ground. Indications are that one of the largest crops in several years will be planted, and those who were fortunate enough to get part of their crop in on the season of two weeks ago report it looking well. The corn crop is doing very well, and the rain will very materially improve the oats and gardens generally. The wheat crop is in most instances in the poorest condition, and in some sections will be turned under. Last year the Irish potato crop was a failure, but at present the crop is very promising, and the yield will be above the average. Gardens generally are looking well, and the fruit crop is very good. Farmers are much better spirited than one week ago, and the splendid rain has infused new life into everything.

The organ recital and sacred concert at the Presbyterian Church on Friday night was well attended and the evening was very enjoyable. Mrs. N. W. Berkley, of Danville, whose musical talent is so well known, presided at the organ, rendering many selections.

William Pitt Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. E. S. Reid, Jr., on North Main Street Friday afternoon. After disposing of the regular routine, delicious refreshments were served.

DON'T WORRY OVER HIGH PRICES.

Buckingham Housewives Gather Vegetables From Their Own Gardens.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Buckingham, Va., June 16.—Despite the fact of high prices for everything in the eating line, housewives have little trouble in getting good meals, as they have good kitchen gardens, from which they are getting string beans and Irish potatoes in plenty, and there is a bountiful supply of excellent country cured hams and a large supply in most places of spring chickens. The pastures have been excellent, and milk and golden butter have been in plenty and the egg supply has also been good. The fruit crop promises to be excellent, and the cherry trees have been laden with luscious fruit for weeks. The rain which set in on Friday somewhat improved the progress of wheat cutting, which was just getting into full swing. The October crop is looking fine and will come in fine time to relieve the shortage in grain. Mill feed has been hard to get at the mills, and the local price has been as high as $2 per hundred.

The advance in the values of real estate has been marked, and many properties have changed hands.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Bondurant had a narrow escape from being hurled over an embankment at the new iron bridge here and Mrs. Bondurant saved herself by jumping to the ground below, while Mr. Bondurant was fortunate enough to land on the bridge and was not hurt. Mrs. Bondurant was considerably bruised, but not seriously hurt. The Board of Supervisors has ordered a new railing to be put on this bridge.

Will Be Rebuilt.
Lynchburg, Va., June 16.—All of the business houses burned out at Amherst College have been ordered to be rebuilt, this decision having been reached by the owners prior to an adjustment of the insurance.

Shoots at Husband.
Charged with attempting to kill her husband, Nellie Gould, who was yesterday morning placed under arrest by Special Officer Taylor, of Swansboro, at her home in New Town, was just getting into full swing when she was taken to the police station, where she was placed in custody, charged with disorderly conduct.

The negroes, it is claimed by the police, quarreled over the attentions Jim was paying to a "Tan Yard Bottom" girl living in the country near the town. Nellie took the law into her own hands and fired three times at her erring spouse, who promptly left the vicinity. Both were taken to the police station, where they were held for $200 for appearance before Squire L. W. Cheatham, Saturday, in the Oak Grove Court.

With the Police Justice To-Day.
An unusually small Monday morning docket awaits the pleasure of Justice H. A. Maurice, in the Police Court, at 10 o'clock. Charles and Minnie Jones, a negro couple, will be tried on a charge of assaulting and beating one John Bondurant, who was taken to the police station on Saturday. The row took place in Tanyard Bottom.

Jim Hip, an Italian, was placed under arrest yesterday and taken to the Third Station to sober up. The man was found on the street waiting to take a car to Petersburg, but was taken to the police station on Saturday. He was returned home on Sunday.

To Convene Court To-Day.
The June term of the Hustings Court, Farley, will be convened by Judge E. H. Wells this morning. A grand jury has been summoned, there being, for the third consecutive term, no criminal matters on the docket. Several important civil cases will be set for trial.

Car Jumps Track.
During the heavy rain last night a car of the Richmond and Petersburg line of the Virginia Railway and Power Company, due in South Richmond at 11:45 o'clock, for Mr. H. A. as it was about to enter the depot at Seventh and Perry Streets. Nearly an hour was lost in getting it back on the track. Cars on the Main Street line were delayed for some time.

Personal Mention.
Roy Atwell, who has been employed in the powerhouse office of the Virginia Railway and Power Company, left for Norfolk, where he has been transferred by the company.

William Morrisette, who has been attending the Funeral Directors' Convention in Boston, returned home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Melton, of 508 Stockton Street, accompanied by their two grandchildren, Olga and Margaret Nunnally, left Saturday for New Kent county, where they will spend two weeks as the guest of their father.

Dr. Stewart Honaker has been called home by the serious illness of his father.

Hangs Himself in Jail.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Winning, Va., June 16.—E. E. Pendleton committed suicide in the jail at Lexington on Saturday night, hanging himself to the ceiling of the iron cage, using two strands of wire taken from a broom handle. Pendleton was serving a nine-months' sentence for shooting at J. S. Dunscomb and wife.

SALE Men's $5 Silk Shirts $3.50
At Greentree's

OUR ONE AMBITION
is to make our Spectacles and Eyeglasses absolute perfection, and each pair that we make is our best effort towards this ideal.

The S. GALESKI Optical Co.
Main and 8th Sts. 223 E. Broad St.
New Process Gas Ranges at Jones Bros. & Co., Inc. 1418-1420 E. Main Street.